You may know exactly what you want to major in, or you may just have an idea. Choosing a meta major is great first step.

Meta majors are broad fields of study. Majors within a meta major have common math requirements and courses that count toward the major you pick.

There are also advisors for each of our eight meta majors. Your advisor will help you explore options and pick the right courses.

Choosing a college is all about the fit – with the people, place, and programs. At Parkside, you'll find challenging academics with a dedicated teaching staff, a diverse student body, a beautiful campus inside and out, and a variety of ways to be active on campus. As a Ranger, you'll graduate ready for the workplace and confident in your abilities. Find out why Parkside is where you belong!

Major in you.

What sets the UW-Parkside experience apart? According to Parkside students, it's the support and individualized attention they receive from faculty and staff alike. Support that doesn't just help you pursue what you want to do; it helps you become who you want to be. This unique balance of personal and academic support – of exciting learning environments and helpful life lessons – put you at the heart of Parkside. A campus where individuals matter and you get the opportunities and personal attention you need to thrive.

VISIT US

Words and pictures can't fully explain the Parkside experience. To better understand what it means to be a Parkside student you need to see campus first hand! When you plan your visit, leave time to visit the art galleries, grab a snack in the Brickstone, or play a round on our beautiful disc golf course. Campus visits are available year round.

To register, go to uwp.edu/visit to select a date and time to view campus. Tours start in the Student Center, where you will be guided by a Campus Ambassador.

A young man with dark hair, wearing black headphones and a black backpack, is walking through a crowd of people. He is looking to his right. The background is filled with other students, some wearing red and white clothing. To the right, there is a white display board with various items pinned to it, including a green pennant that says "University of Wisconsin PARKSIDE" and a red card.

Your community.

80+
CLUBS & ORGS

Life beyond the classroom at Parkside offers multiple ways to get involved, gain leadership skills, and make a positive difference. You'll find more than 80 student organizations to choose from, focusing on community service, academics, leadership, Greek life, and much more! Plus, there are intramural and club sport teams available. Add skills, new people, and a good dose of fun to your Parkside experience by getting involved.

There are plenty of entertaining activities that take place right on campus, including theatre productions, concerts, speakers, scientific lectures, films, movies, DJs, comedians, gallery openings, and more – often for free or reduced prices, for our students.

Campus Safety and Security Parkside takes your safety and security very seriously. We have a 24-hour police department and many safety trainings to help you feel secure and prepared. Our campus safety, crime statistics, and annual security report can be found online at uwp.edu/securityreport or request a paper copy from the Dean of Students Office at 262-595-2451.

RANGER HALL is a traditional-style residence hall and home to most first-year students living on campus. Each room is designed for up to two students.

PIKE RIVER SUITES offer suite-style residence living. Students live on a wing, sharing a lounge, kitchenette, and study area.

UNIVERSITY APARTMENTS each house up to six students, with four bedrooms, a full kitchen, dining area, living room, and two bathrooms.

We major in you!

You are the heart of Parkside. Your success is our success. And we are committed to helping you along the way, getting you started on the right path from day one.

Taking 15 credits each semester helps to ensure that you graduate in four years. You'll save money and time!
Bonus fact: students who register for 15 credits their first semester tend to do better academically!

The math pathway for your meta major begins your first semester to make sure you develop the math skills you need to be successful.

And, if you're thinking math isn't your best subject – no worries. The Parkside Academic Resource Center (PARC) has math tutors ready to help. Beyond math, PARC has tutors in English, science, and other subjects.

What we consider in the application process

Parkside completes a comprehensive review of each application we receive. Both academic and nonacademic factors presented in an application are used to make an admission decision. The most competitive candidates for admission present positive factors in their application that are both academic and nonacademic.
