RESIDENCE HALL HANDBOOK OVERVIEW

Housing and Residence Life is committed to offering academic support and student support opportunities that contribute to the overall student development of students living in the residence halls and apartments at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. By living in the residence halls, residents will gain essential skills to achieve personal and academic success. The policies and information provided in the Residence Hall Handbook is aligned with the four engagement areas of our Residential Ranger Experience:

- Academic Engagement
- Community Engagement
- Leadership Engagement
- Social Justice Engagement

A goal for the residence halls is to have an environment where all residents are an integral part of the community and, as such, assume an active role in developing and maintaining an atmosphere that promotes success for all members. The primary responsibility for behavior rests with the individual. Consideration and tolerance of others is required.

These policies, together with those mandated by the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, University of Wisconsin System (UWS), and local/state/federal laws, constitute the expectations of the residence hall community. University and UWS policies are covered in the Student Handbook, and students are responsible for knowing this information. The Student Handbook can be viewed online. Failure to abide by these policies will result in referral to the University Student Conduct process.

RESIDENTS' RIGHTS

As members of the residential community, you have the right to expect the following:

- The ability to sleep, read, and study free from undue interference, unreasonable noise, and other distractions.
- Personal privacy within the limits of the residence halls.
- A clean-living environment.
- Freedom from harassment, including sexual harassment, as well as threats of intimidation and physical or emotional harm. This includes acts of ethnic or racial intimidation, hazing, or harassment for reasons of race, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and/or veteran status.
- Assistance and support from housing staff.

RESIDENTS' RESPONSIBILITIES

As members of the residential community, you have the responsibility to:

- Treat residents and staff with respect, consideration, and cooperation.
- Accord every resident personal dignity and report incidents of racial and/or other discrimination or harassment to Housing and Residence Life staff.

ROOMMATE AGREEMENTS

It is important to start the year off with mutually defined room standards and expectations. At the beginning of each academic year, your Resident Advisor will discuss the process for completing roommate agreements with your roommate(s). The roommate agreement process is essential to the roommate relationship by establishing common practices for the shared living space. Housing and Residence Life encourages open and honest conversations among residents when they are experiencing conflict in their roommate relationship. Residence Advisors and Housing Professional staff are available to lend support during these conversations and may reference/amend the Roommate Agreement as needed to assist the roommates in achieving an agreed-upon compromise. Roommate agreements can be, mutually, amended at any time between roommates.

MyCHART AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Immunization Record Update with SHCC: Maintaining up-to-date immunization records is crucial for ensuring a healthy and safe campus community. All students are required to provide their immunization records to the Student Health and Counseling Center (SHCC) upon enrollment and whenever updates are made. Please promptly submit any changes to your immunization record to SHCC via MyChart.
- Importance of Carrying Insurance Cards (Health and Auto): As a responsible member of our university community, it is essential to carry your insurance cards at all times. Having your health insurance card readily available will expedite medical treatment and help you access necessary services. Additionally, for those who drive, carrying your auto insurance card is mandatory for compliance with state laws. Remember to keep these cards up-to-date and readily accessible in case of emergencies or unforeseen situations.
- Understanding Health Insurance Coverage: It is essential for all students to have a clear understanding of their health insurance coverage. Before seeking medical services, take the time to familiarize yourself with the details of your policy, including co-pays, deductibles, and coverage limitations. Please remember that the university does not cover the cost of medical transportation. It is your responsibility to know the extent of your health insurance coverage to avoid unexpected expenses.

Note: This information is subject to change, and it is the responsibility of each student to stay informed about any updates related to health and insurance policies. Please refer to the official university website or contact the relevant departments for the most current information.

Our campus continues to monitor the transmission levels of COVID-19 and its variants. Based on guidance from the Center for Disease Control (CDC), residents are not required to wear a mask/face-covering. However, there may be individuals who choose to wear a mask due to their health status. Based on federal, state, and local public health guidance, Housing and Residence Life reserves the right to update the face covering protocol.

MONITORING FOR COVID-19

Residents are required to monitor for symptoms each day before leaving their residence hall/apartment. If you are experiencing symptoms such as shortness of breath, fever, cough, or loss of taste or smell, even if they are mild, remain in your residence hall room. Students should contact the Student Health and Counseling Center by phone at 262-595-2366 for an appointment.

TESTING/ CONTRACT TRACING

Students who are symptomatic can be evaluated by the medical providers in the Student Health and Counseling Center and tested as deemed appropriate. Residents who test positive are asked to notify their close contacts and their instructors. A resident who tests positive should follow CDC guidance for preventing spread of respiratory viruses when sick.

Per the CDC, people with a respiratory virus should stay away from others until at least 24 hours after both symptoms are improving overall and they have not had a fever without the use of fever-reducing medication. For 5 additional days, people should consider added precautions such as hygiene, use of masks, physical distancing, and steps for cleaner air.

HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE POLICIES

ALCOHOL

The legal drinking age in Wisconsin is 21. The University and the Office of Housing and

The Office of Housing and Residence Life supports responsible choices involving the consumption of alcohol beverages. The possession and/or consumption of alcohol in moderation are a privilege for those residents of legal drinking age in their assigned rooms.

The misuse (underage drinking, drinking in unauthorized areas, etc.) and the abuse of alcohol (drinking to an extent such that one's behavior and judgment are impaired or results in disruption of others) are prohibited, regardless of where the alcohol was consumed. The effects of alcohol misuse and abuse include excessive noise, disruptive behavior, interpersonal conflict, inappropriate drinking habits, interference with cleanliness of the residence halls, physical damage, or vandalism. Individuals who misuse or abuse alcohol negatively affect the community and also endanger their own health or education.

Violations of the alcohol policy will be reported to University Police and to Residence Life. All alcohol policy violations will require a Student Conduct hearing. Students are also subject to police issued citations for violations of state laws regarding alcohol. Additional information regarding University Police citations can be obtained by going to their web address at: <http://www.uwp.edu/live/offices/universitypolice/>.

Good Samaritan Clause

In cases of intoxication and/ or alcohol poisoning, the primary concern is the health and safety of the individual(s) involved. If an intoxicated student needs medical assistance, it is the university's priority to assist without punitive consequence. In most cases, neither the intoxicated individual(s) nor an individual/group who assists will be subject to punitive Student Conduct action. This does not excuse or protect those who flagrantly or repeatedly violate University of Wisconsin System and the Residence Hall Handbook policies in regards to alcohol. The Good Samaritan guide applies to straightforward cases of alcohol poisoning only. If other infractions occur, such as assault or property damage, the clause does not apply.

Students, or members of the community, who observe a medical or other emergency are obligated to call for help. If the "Good Samaritan" who places a call for help is found to be in violation of a housing policy, the fact that they placed the call will be considered a mitigating circumstance when sanctions are imposed.

If you feel a community member needs medical assistance please contact University of Wisconsin-Parkside Police Department at (262) 595-2911.

ASSAULT

A physical act or a threat in conjunction with a physical act between roommates will result in automatic arrest. ## MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY

The 2008 Higher Education Opportunities Act states in section 488;

Federal law requires institutions that have on-campus student housing to establish and implement a "missing student notification" policy for students who reside in on-campus housing that:

- a. Informs each student about and provides students the option of designating an emergency contact
- b. Provides students a means to "register confidential contact information"

- c. Requires disclosure to students who are under age of 18 that the institution is required to notify parent or guardian if student is deemed missing
- d. Requires the institution to implement emergency notification procedures when students have been deemed missing
- e. Requires activating "official notification procedures" when students have been missing:
  - o Notifying law enforcement
  - o Notifying parent/guardian of students who are under 18
  - o Notifying emergency contact of students who are over 18

As a result, Housing and Residence Life created the following policy & procedure:

Missing Student Policy

Those notified include University Police for all individuals and either the parent/guardian for residents under the age of 18 OR the emergency contact of students who are over the age of 18. Emergency contact information will be obtained from the information residents provide to the campus.

A room condition report (RCR) is given to every resident at check-in when one moves in to a residence hall room. The RCR must be completed prior to a resident moving into a room and returned to the Office of Housing and Residence Life within 24 hours of occupancy. The RCR serves as the record of the condition of a room at the beginning of occupancy. Students should note any defects in the room, ceiling, and furnishings, and inventory the equipment provided. Failure to complete the RCR will mean that the condition of the room will be determined to be as it was at the end of the previous occupancy. Therefore, failure to return an RCR could mean that a resident may be held responsible for damages that predate one's occupancy. The condition of a room/apartment will be checked and the condition of the furnishings will be evaluated after a resident moves out of a room. If damages have occurred or if items are missing that are not noted on the RCR, the resident will be held responsible for the costs of repair or replacement.

ROOM/BUILDING CONDITION AND DAMAGES

A resident must pay for any damages, lost property, or unnecessary service costs caused by them or their guests because of neglect or intentional damage. When responsibility for the damage cannot be ascertained, the charge will be assessed equally between residents of the apartment or residents of the floor/house/building.

- c. A designated university official may enter and search university premises if there is reason to believe that the premises are being used for an illegal purpose or a purpose that violates health or safety regulations or interferes with normal university operation. Evidence found in such a search might be confiscated and used in Student Conduct proceedings. In Residence Life, a designated university official shall be a professional Housing and Residence Life staff member.
